Dear Customer:

You have received this letter and the enclosed form because your recent claim for Financial Hardship protection. For your account to receive this protection based on your family or group income that is at or below the annual or quarterly gross income levels established for financial hardship, the enclosed form and proof of financial hardship (such as tax returns, 3 month paystubs, or SSDI/SSI award letter within the past year) must be completed and returned within seven (7) days of the mailing date on this letter.

Financial Hardship: The Rhode Island Public Utilities Commission's Rules and Regulations Governing the Termination of Residential Electric, Gas and Water Utility Service provide specific protections to financial hardship customers. "Financial hardship category" means "those families or groups of unrelated individuals residing in one dwelling unit with a combined gross income equal to or less than seventy-five percent of the Rhode Island median income as calculated by the U.S. Bureau of Census and as adjusted for family or group size by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services ["HHS"] regulation 45 CFR Sec.96.85 or its successor regulation." Appendix A to the Rules and Regulations "sets out the Rhode Island median for family or group size and shall be regularly updated in accordance with HHS regulations governing the federal low-income Home Energy Assistance Program." Households can qualify under the financial hardship category based on either their annual income or their income over the most recent three (3) months.

Please return the completed information to the address listed below. We will notify you in writing whether your completed information was either accepted or rejected. Failure to pay current bills or make an arrangement on past-due balances will subject you to collections activity, including termination.
